

MARGARET-ROSE'S BIO (EPK)

Margaret-Rose is a Contemporary Christian Singer/Songwriter from Winnipeg, Canada with a heart to inspire and encourage others.

She got her start in the church at an early age, singing duets with her Mom. She comes from a Musical Family. Her Maternal Grandfather was a terrific Trumpet player and her Maternal Grandmother was known as 'The Bell' in her day, she had an awesome singing voice. Margaret-Rose's Mom was also a very talented Singer. She continues to be a gifted Songwriter and has continued her song writing over the years, she recently collaborated with the Music Artist. Margaret-Rose continues to hone her song writing skills and to use her musical talents for the Lord.

Margaret-Rose has grown from her life experiences and says, "It has been a real learning curve and roller coaster ride these past three years. With my Parents experiencing some health issues and my Precious Dad passing away suddenly this past July 2018, one of the hardest things I have ever gone through. Myself going through moments of doubt and painful circumstances. I can honestly say, my God has been faithful, and for this I am so very grateful." She goes on to say, "I thank my Family and my Producer Jordan Jackiew for their support and for believing in me even when I doubted myself." She has previously released two radio Singles - Be Bold and Out of the Blue.

Margaret-Rose releases her New Single – Hold On, February 15th, 2019!

This song based on Hebrews 12:1&2, walks the listener through the dark and difficult days, but also brings us to a pleasant place on the other side, as we continue to run the race that is set before us.

"It is my Prayer that lives will be touched by the message in this Song. May you find hope in times of despair, may your heart and spirit be lifted in times of sorrow, and may you be filled with His Peace."
